Sleighing Party.
On Monday evening last, quite a large and select sleighing party arrived at the Valley House, J. W. Raudenbush, proprietor, from Parryville. Among the party were the following named gentlemen, accompanied by ladies: Geo. Evans, C. Dunlop, T. M. Weaver, G. Wintling, T. Buckland, Wm. Lewis, D. Schoenberger, D. Snyder, C. Slaughterer, A. Fritzingler, A. Dittmeyer, R. Thomas, T. Evans, Wm. Bamford and T. Gaumer. The party partook of a very excellent supper, gotten up in mine host Raudenbush's best style, and which elicited praise from the entire party. The party then adjourned to the ball room, where they tripped it on "the light fantastic toe" to the sweet strains of music produced by the MacDaniel family, of this borough, until an early hour in the morning, when the party returned to their homes highly delighted with their evening's pleasure, and expressing the greatest satisfaction with the arrangements made for them by the landlord and his lady at the Valley House.

Off for Philadelphia.

At a meeting of the Weissport School Board on Saturday evening last, the President, Mr. Fred'k Schmidt, who has filed that position for the past three years, tendered his resignation, in consequence of his intention to take up his residence in Philadelphia, which was accepted, and Mr. H. Musseman was appointed to fill the vacancy. In the Council, on the same day, Mr. Schmidt also tendered his resignation as a member of that body (of which he has been a member since its organization), which was also accepted. After the adjournment of the two bodies, the members spent a very pleasant and convivial evening together. On Monday evening the Fort Allen Cornet Band visited the residence of Mr. Schmidt and serenaded him and his family with some of their choicest pieces. On Tuesday morning Mr. S. left for Philadelphia, in the 11:02 train, followed by his family on Wednesday. Mr. S., during his residence in this section has proved himself one of our most enterprising citizens; having at various times erected some ten dwellings in this borough, besides a number in Weisport. He leaves a host of friends, whose earnest wish it is that he may find many friends and a lucrative business in his new home.

Surprise Party.

On Wednesday evening last a large number of the friends of Mr. Wm. DuFour and family surprised them by entering their premises unheralded and uninvited. He being absent, a messenger was at once dispatched for him, and on finding him he was informed that a raid was being made on his premises. Mr. DuFour, doubtless feeling anxious for the safety of his family, at once hastened to his home, and to his great surprise found his house literally filled, not with masked burglars, but with his old friends and acquaintances of this place and from Packerton, making themselves quite at home. After a good, old-fashioned shake hands all around, the party sat down for a good social chit-chat. At about ten o'clock the party were introduced into the dining room, where a table was spread in the most tasteful manner, and loaded with every luxury that tends to comfort the inner man. The company, after doing ample justice to the good things before them, adjourned to the parlors, where they were treated to some very excellent music, led by our efficient organist, Eddie Miller, assisted by Miss Clara Harleman, of Packerton. And at the approach of the "wee sma' hours" the party left, with many a hearty wish for a long life of comfort and happiness to Mr. DuFour and family.

Institute.

Lehighton Academy, Feb. 7.—Institute was called to order by D. S. Grossman, President pro tem., at 8:45 A. M., Mr. Kessler being absent. The roll was called. Misses Bauer, Heilman, and Weaver responded to their names. The minutes of previous meeting were read and adopted. Miss Heilman read an essay subject, "History and how to teach it." The writer believes that much historical information can be imparted to very young pupils, and that Oral History should be included among the branches taught in primary schools. A discussion of the subject followed the reading.

Miss Weaver read an essay, subject, "Amusement of Pupils." The pale face and feeble body of those pupils who are constantly poring over their books has convinced the teacher that physical culture dare not be neglected. The amusements should be such as require bodily exercise. The subject was discussed by the Institute.

The subjects adopted for discussion at the next meeting of the Institute are as follows: "Primary Arithmetic" by Miss Paul; "Should whispering be tolerated in school?" by Miss Bauer; "The Teacher's Health" by D. S. Grossman. Institute adjourned at 11 A. M., to meet Feb. 21 at 1:30 P. M.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Sunday School.

To the Editor of THE CARBON ADVOCATE:

SIR: We thank you for the kind offer you have made to the Sunday School teachers, allowing them the free use of the columns of your paper for such matters as may be of interest to the Sunday School cause. Let us first start at the teacher; for as he looks over the widening field of labor and of influence, the old problem returns with renewed force: How shall I so teach the word of God that each member of my class may become a devout, intelligent and efficient Christian? All class work in the Bible School should be done with a view to the conversion of the scholar, and his subsequent growth in grace. To be able to do this, the teacher's work must be of such a character that it can be supplemented by the Spirit of God, and this will only come through the quickening influence of his own vital godliness. Bible-school instruction has this distinctive quality: it aims to produce experience, rather than learning, and to make that experience the regulator of the life. This introspective work, set forward by the divine Spirit, requires that the teacher shall himself be the living exponent of that faith and spiritual discernment which he seeks to cultivate in the class. In preparing a little lesson for the purpose of extending Christian experience, he must be as much of a learner before God as his class are learners from him. Just so much inspiration and nourishment as he draws from the lesson he may communicate, and no more. This vital Christian experience is in itself an expounder of God's word, and thus taught of God, he may not only prayfully but hopefully begin the practical part of his work in the class. And the teacher will accomplish most, spiritually, who seeks to lead his class only through those avenues by which he himself leans on God, because here lies his real power. It may be through trust, like David; or faith, like Abraham; or buffetings, like Paul; or it may be submissive love, or obedient love; but through some one or more of these a hundred experiences, in which the soul comes nearer to Him than through any other. God has appreciated every Christian to himself. To one he gives trust, to another faith, to another brotherly love, and makes the apprenticeship and discipline so perfect that this distinctive element of Christian character in the individual who possesses it surpasses all his other powers and efficiency. The humblest saint, conscious of his vital union with God, through this experience will accomplish a work beyond the power of the highest purely human intellect.

PAIN-KILLER!

THE GREAT

Family Medicine of the Age.

PAIN-KILLER

after a thorough trial by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is that its sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the PAIN-KILLER upon the patient when taken internally in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaint, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century.

THE PAIN-KILLER derives much of its popularity from the simplicity attending its use, which gives it a peculiar value in a family. The various diseases which may be reached by it, and in their incipient case eradicated, are among those which are peculiarly fatal if allowed to run; but the curative magic of this preparation at once disarms them of their terrors. In all respects it fulfills the conditions of a popular medicine.

Be sure you call for and get the genuine Pain-Killer, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.

Directions accompany each bottle. Price—25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

Sold by all Medicine Dealers.
